Jane Doe, Inc. led the establishment of the annual Massachusetts White Ribbon Day Campaign in 2007, in an intentional effort to engage men and boys in the effort to end all forms of gender-based violence.

Independence House, Inc., a core member of Jane Doe, Inc., along with the collaboration of the Yarmouth Police Department and Cape and Islands District Attorney’s Office established Cape Cod White Ribbon Day in 2013 and the Barnstable County Sheriff’s Department in 2023 as part of the White Ribbon Campaign in Massachusetts.
